

CHECKSHEET FOR INDIVIDUAL STUDY

ENGL 491/492; LING 491/492; COMM 491/492

Requirements:

____ junior or senior standing

____ major G.P.A. of 3.0 or above ____ required coursework (English majors: ENGL 295 plus at least two upper-level courses. Other majors: at least three ELC courses of which at least two are upper-level.)

Submit the following to the review committee:

____ green application sheet (available from the Registrar's Office) containing student information, title of Individual Study project, course designation (e.g., ENGL 491, LING 491, COMM 491), and advisor's signature. (Note: if this is your second IS, the course designation will be 492.)

____ written proposal (1-2 pp. plus bibliography), to include:

____ motivation and preparation for the IS, including relevant previous course work, and G.P.A in the major ____ why the subject area of this IS is appropriate for ELC sponsorship, including proof that the IS does not duplicate a course already offered in the catalogue ____ statement of objectives and activities that will fulfill these objectives, including:

____ reading list of appropriate primary and/or secondary sources ____ schedule of conferences with faculty sponsor, indicating anticipated subject of discussion ____ listing of the substantial oral and/or written work to be performed (including requirement for length or scope of all assignments), with a focus toward a central project ____ rubric for grading

Deadline for submission is the Friday of the first week of classes. See web page for full details.
