INTERNSHIP (ENGL 499, LING 499, COMM 499)

Requirements:
____ junior or senior standing ____ may not apply more than three credits toward the English major

Submit the following to the review committee:
____ Internship application form (available from Career Services) ____ Brief written proposal, to include the following:
   ____ significant learning experience the internship will provide you ____ education or experience that prepares you for this internship, including relevant previous course work ____ why the internship is appropriate to sponsorship by the ELC Department ____ academic content of the internship credit. (Note: University policy specifies that this must be in addition to the work done for the internship itself. Thus a portfolio of work written or produced during the internship is not sufficient. The academic component will usually include several of the following or an appropriate substitute: a journal submitted regularly to the faculty sponsor, a reflective essay or a research essay completed at the end of the internship, a series of interviews with people working in the relevant career field, a presentation to an appropriate university or public audience such as the ELC Department's Kemp Symposium.) ____ length of all writing assignments ____ frequency of meetings with the advisor

Deadline for submission is the Friday of the second week of classes. See web page for full details.
