ACTUARIAL SCIENCE MINOR

ARE YOU A BUSINESS OR ECONOMICS MAJOR?

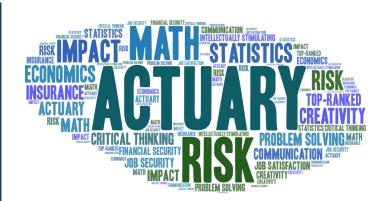

The ACTUARIAL SCIENCE MINOR could be perfect for you!

What is actuarial science?

Applying math and statistics to manage risk.

Why be an actuary?

 Actuary is consistently ranked as one of the top jobs in America!

Why minor in actuarial science?

- Develop the tools and skills you need to better anticipate and manage risks!
- Get some preparation for the first two actuarial exams!

OPEN TO STUDENTS OF ALL MAJORS

Actuarial Science Minor Requirements (22 credits):

MATH 122 MATH 481

STAT 381

ECON 201 and 202

6 - 7 credits from: ACCT 301, 302; CPSC 310; ECON 301, 303, 304, 321, 322; MATH 351, 352; STAT 382

To learn more about the actuarial science minor and its requirements:

- Contact Dr. Esunge (jesunge@umw.edu or in Trinkle 129)
- Refer to the Actuarial Science Minor section on page 177 of the 2019–2020 undergraduate course catalog