After graduating from UMW, Samantha Wilhelm ’15, moved to Washington, D.C. and began working as an assistant stage manager at Round House Theatre in Bethesda, Md. While there she worked on productions of Uncle Vanya and NSFW. She then became the full time production assistant at Ford’s Theatre, where she currently works with several other Mary Wash alums. Some of her Ford’s Theatre credits include Come From Away, A Christmas Carol, and The Glass Menagerie. In addition, she works as a freelance stage manager in and around DC. Most recently she was the production stage manager for Blossom’s Rainbow at Arts on the Horizon in Alexandria, Va. During her time at UMW, Samantha worked as a scene shop assistant. She was the stage manager for Sunday in the Park with George, Drunken City, and Lysistrata, as well as the assistant stage manager for Spring Awakening.

After graduation, Tiffany Hayzlett Parker ’98 left MWC for New York City and began work at a talent agency. A year later, she returned to the off-Broadway New York Theatre Workshop, where she had interned while in college. She worked in marketing at the Workshop for five years before beginning her career in film and television. Tiffany served as Kenneth Lonergan’s assistant for his movie, Margaret. She has been a producer on Sex and the City: The Movie and its sequel, Sex and the City 2, as well as on the first season of Nurse Jackie for Showtime, Flesh & Bone for Starz, and HBO’s, VINYL. While at MWC, Tiffany served as administrative assistant to the chair for three years and performed in Cloud Nine (for both its Fredericksburg and London performances), Getting Out, and Inspecting Carol.

Rob Eastman-Mullins ’00 is a freelance scenographer (designing scenery, lighting, and costumes) in addition to his appointment as associate professor of design & production and associate chair of the Department of Theatre & Dance at Wake Forest University. He also travels the world as the U.S. delegate to the International Organization of Scenographers, Theatre Architects & Technicians Performance Design Commission and the Vice-Commissioner for Programming for United States Institute for Theatre Technology International Activities Commission. Rob holds an MFA in scenic design, with a secondary emphasis in costume design, from the North Carolina School of the Arts. His career began at Mary Washington where he designed scenery for The Caucasian Chalk Circle. Rob fondly remembers directing an evening of Christopher Durang short plays and appearing onstage in Approaching Zanzibar and Sweeney Todd. Today, he lives in Winston-Salem, NC with his wife of 19 years, Andrea, and children, Ian (7) and Dana (3).
After graduating in 1999, Emre Iz’at moved to New York, where he worked as an assistant director and off-Broadway actor. His career took a turn towards non-fiction when he moved to Washington, D.C., and joined National Geographic Television where he developed, wrote, directed, and produced a number of documentary productions. Since 2010, Emre has lived in Amsterdam, where he runs the Amsterdam production unit of Off the Fence, an independent production and distribution company. On the job, he has carried a saltwater crocodile, ridden shotgun on a SWAT team raid of a burning meth lab, ridden on a robotic crane in the LEGO factory, and witnessed the birth of a baby elephant. His most recent two films, Mind of a Giant and Naledi: A Baby Elephant’s Tale, were distinguished with awards from the United Nations. Naledi: A Baby Elephant’s Tale premieres on Netflix on December 24. While at Mary Washington, Emre appeared in a number of productions, including Picnic, The Taming of the Shew, Waiting for Godot, Inspecting Carol, As You Like It, and Sunday in the Park with George, as well as designing sound for Crimes of the Heart, Sweeney Todd, Arms and the Man, and The Dining Room.

Devon Painter ’85 left college for Texas where she taught middle school before pursuing an MFA in Costume Design and Technology from the University of Texas in Austin. Her first theatre job was at the Repertory Theatre of St. Louis, where she was a first hand. Since then, she has worked in regional theaters across the country as a draper, dyer/painter, and a stitcher, eventually landing at the Guthrie Theatre in Minneapolis as a design assistant. While at the Guthrie, she assisted legendary designers as Susan Hilferty, Jess Goldstein, Paul Tazewell, and the late, great Desmond Heeley. She moved from Minneapolis to New York City to assist many of those same designers on Broadway and begin her own design career. Most recently, Devon has designed at the Guthrie Theatre, American Players Theatre, Oregon Shakespeare Theatre, Geva Theatre Center, and Indiana Repertory Theatre. She has been designing costumes as a freelance designer for the past 16 years and pinches herself on a daily basis for her good fortune to succeed in a field she loves. While at Mary Washington, Devon was a stitcher for Miss Julie, The Good Doctor, and Play It Again, Sam and served as assistant costume designer for The Importance of Being Earnest.

Brandon Prendergast ’95 moved to NYC after graduation and began his stage management career working on projects with Julie Taymor, Philip Glass, Liz Swados, and Twyla Tharp. After a few years in New York, Brandon settled in Washington, D.C., where he has stage managed more than 60 productions at The Kennedy Center, Shakespeare Theatre, and Ford’s Theatre. D.C. career highlights include productions with Bernadette Peters, Elaine Paige, Elizabeth Ashley, Kathy Bates, Richard Thomas, Tom Selleck, Christine Baranski, and Dixie Carter. He has been in rehearsal with Stephen Sondheim, Terrence McNally, and Jason Robert Brown, among others. He has helped produce four Broadway-bound shows and many world premieres. Brandon is the production advisor and on the adjunct faculty at UMW Theatre, where he leads the stage management program. As a student, Brandon worked in lighting, sound, and the management office and stage managed Into the Woods, The Boys Next Door, and Baby with the Bathwater.

This year, we have partnered with SNAAP, The Strategic National Arts Alumni Project to help us connect with our Alumni and enhance our relationship with them. SNAAP is an annual online survey, data management and institutional improvement system designed to enhance the impact of arts-school education. SNAAP will provide the first national data on how artists develop in this country, help identify the factors needed to better connect arts training to artistic careers and allow education institutions, researchers and arts leaders to look at the systemic factors that helped or hindered the career paths of alumni, whether they have chosen to work as artists or pursue other paths.
Each year, the Department of Theatre & Dance awards scholarships to theatre students in recognition of their outstanding contributions to the department and its productions.

Andrew Baynard ’17 is a double major in political science and theatre. Andrew is currently a scene shop assistant for the department, and has also worked as the electrics assistant. He has been a part of numerous productions, including sound engineer for The Miss Firecracker Contest and Frozen, light board operator for Always…Patsy Cline, Doubt, and The Drunken City, and master electrician for Noises Off, Avenue Q, and Frozen. Andrew is the recipient of the Alexander W. Holsinger Scholarship in Theatre.

Angel Cowen ’18 is a theatre major with an arts administration minor. Angel is the electrics assistant for the department, the junior class representative to the faculty, and the technical supervisor of Studio 115. She has been the assistant to the lighting designer for Avenue Q, light board operator for Frozen and Assistance, and master electrician for Tartuffe and The Mystery Of Edwin Drood. She is currently the house manager for The Mystery of Edwin Drood. Angel is a recipient of the Albert R. Klein Memorial Scholarship.

Claire Crusott ’17 is a theatre major with a focus in design. Claire has been the sound engineer for Doubt, the 2nd assistant stage manager for Lady Windermere’s Fan, properties manager for Frozen, and the assistant to the scenic designer for Avenue Q, Tartuffe, and The Mystery of Edwin Drood. She will also be the scenic designer for UMW Theatre’s upcoming production of Macbeth. Claire is the recipient of the Rosemary Ingham Scholarship in Theatre.

Mo Gresham ’17 is a theatre major and is pursuing licensure in elementary education. Mo is the administrative assistant and a box office assistant for the department, president of Alpha Psi Omega (the national theatre honor society), and the sound engineer for Studio 115. She was the sound engineer for The Drunken City, the assistant to the sound designer for Noises Off, and the sound designer for Tartuffe. She will be designing sound in Klein again this spring for Macbeth. Mo is a recipient of the Albert R. Klein Memorial Scholarship.

member of Alpha Psi Omega, the national theatre honorary society
Megan Khaziran ‘17* is a theatre major with minors in musical theatre and arts administration. Megan is the recruitment assistant and a box office assistant for the department, treasurer of Alpha Psi Omega, and a Studio 115 committee member. She has performed in Lysistrata, The Drunken City, and Avenue Q. She is currently the assistant to the choreographer for The Mystery of Edwin Drood. Megan is the recipient of the Debby Klein Scholarship in Theatre.

Taylor Kiechlin ‘17* is a theatre major with an arts administration minor. She is the communications assistant for the department and is the senior class representative to the faculty. She has been the 2nd assistant stage manager for Spring Awakening, the assistant stage manager for the Always…Patsy Cline summer revival, Lady Windermere's Fan, and Frozen, and the stage manager for Noises Off, Tartuffe, and The Mystery of Edwin Drood. She will also be the stage manager for UMW Theatre’s production of Steel Magnolias. Taylor is a recipient of the Keith Belli Scholarship in Theatre.

Beverly Kippenhan ‘17* is a theatre major with minors in musical theatre and arts administration. Bev is a box office assistant for the department, as well as the vice president of Alpha Psi Omega. She has performed in Lysistrata and Lady Windermere's Fan. Bev is also very active in Studio 115 and recently performed in its Miscast Showcase. Currently, she is working on a local production of Edges, that is directed by UMW alumna, Julia Wells. Bev is the recipient of the Fred Winer Scholarship.

Jessica Knapp ‘17 is a double major in theatre and psychology. She is the audience services assistant and a box office assistant for the department. She has been the assistant house manager for The Drunken City and Frozen and was the house manager for Avenue Q. She will also be house managing both Steel Magnolias and Macbeth in the spring. Jessica is a recipient of the Keith Belli Memorial Scholarship in Theatre.

Gwen Levey ‘17* is a theatre major. Gwen is the interactive marketing assistant for the department. She is a very active member of the department having performed in Spring Awakening and Avenue Q, and currently in The Mystery of Edwin Drood. Gwen is a singer/songwriter who performs throughout the region. She was the house manager for both the spring and summer productions of Always…Patsy Cline. Gwen is the recipient of the Lee Wingate Pappandreou ‘40 Scholarship in Theatre.

Levi Manuel ‘17 is a music major. Levi is a bassist for the string and jazz ensembles, as well as a rookie composer who will be performing in UMW’s annual Electro-Acoustic Barn Dance. He will also be going through the graduate education program after receiving his undergraduate degree next semester. Levi is a recipient of the UMW Performing Arts for the Community Scholarship.

Jessica N. Merritt ‘17 is a music major. Jessica currently performs as the lead trumpet player in the UMW Jazz Ensemble, as well as with many other local groups. When not actively performing, she shares her love of music by working with the King George High School Royal Regiment Marching Band, a Virginia Honor Band Program, and volunteers teaching music with the Salvation Army’s after-school youth music program. Jessica is a recipient of the UMW Performing Arts for the Community Scholarship.

Cynthia Mullins ‘18 is a theatre major with minors in musical theatre and arts administration. Cynthia is the accounting assistant and a box office assistant for the department, as well as communications director for Studio 115. She was the 2nd assistant stage manager for Noises Off and is currently performing the role of Mildred Moss in The Mystery of Edwin Drood. Cynthia is a recipient of the Albert R. Klein Memorial Scholarship.

Alex Newton ‘17 is a theatre major. Since coming to UMW in the fall of 2015, Alex has appeared as Selsdon in Noises Off, Nick in Assistance earlier this fall, and has performed in various plays produced by Studio 115. He is a recipient of the Keith Belli Scholarship in Theatre.

*member of Alpha Psi Omega, the national theatre honorary society
Catherine O’Meara ’17* is a double major in theatre and psychology. Catherine was seen most recently onstage as Heather in Assistance. She also played Sister James in Doubt. She was also the house manager for Noises Off and Avenue Q’s Backstage Pass series. Catherine is the recipient of the Nina G. Bushnell Scholarship.

Jacob Savage ’18* is a double major in theatre and accounting with minor in arts administration. Jacob is a member of the Studio 115 committee. He has worked in varying capacities, including as a production assistant for The Miss Firecracker Contest, properties run crew for Lady Windermere’s Fan, and as an actor in Sunday in the Park with George, Avenue Q, Tartuffe, and The Mystery of Edwin Drood. Jacob is a recipient of the Albert R. Klein Memorial Scholarship.

Michael Townsend ’17* is a double major in historic preservation and theatre. Mic is a box office assistant for the department and a member of Alpha Psi Omega. He has performed in Harvey, Lysistrata, Sunday in the Park with George, Noises Off, Tartuffe, and, currently, The Mystery of Edwin Drood. He was also the production assistant for Spring Awakening. Mic is a recipient of the Keith Belli Scholarship in Theatre.

Austen Weathersby ’17* is a double major in theatre and creative writing. Austen is the special projects assistant for the department and maintains the production archives. She serves as secretary for Alpha Psi Omega. Austen has helped coordinate events for the Avenue Q Backstage Pass, been a production assistant for Tartuffe, and is the assistant house manager for The Mystery of Edwin Drood. Austen is a recipient of the Susan Mulholland Breedin ’86 Scholarship in Theatre.

Edward Yates ’16 is a theatre major with a business administration minor. He has studied ballet, jazz, modern, and improvisation while at UMW. Edward has performed as a principal dancer in The Nutcracker, Sleeping Beauty, Don Quixote, and A Midsummer Night’s Dream. He was also featured in American Ballet Theatre’s production of Romeo and Juliet with Misty Copeland. Most recently, Edward served as assistant house manager for Assistance. Edward is a recipient of the Keith Belli Scholarship in Theatre.

We are privileged to live an hour away from a world-class theatre city, Washington, D.C., home to a great number of spectacular companies. This season we are taking you on a road trip to experience the breathtaking work of these theatres—complete with on-board lectures and discussions.

After a sold-out trip to Ford’s Theatre to attend the Broadway-bound Come From Away, we are now looking forward to our next Road Trip, A Raisin in the Sun, at Arena Stage! We will board a charter bus at duPont Hall at noon to travel to the theatre for a matinee performance. While on the road, a member of our faculty will talk about the theatre and the production we are about to see. On the way home we will enjoy a post-performance discussion about our theatre experience!

The Road Trip is only $75. Your cost covers your transportation to and from the theatre and your ticket! No driving! No parking! Going to the theatre in Washington could not be easier!

A Raisin in the Sun

by Lorraine Hansberry

Arena Stage

The “play that changed American theater forever” (New York Times) finally comes to Arena Stage. Lorraine Hansberry’s groundbreaking masterpiece follows the Younger family yearning for a better life far from the cramped confines of their Chicago tenement. Hope arrives in the form of an unexpected financial windfall, but family ties are strained when they realize they have differing definitions of the American dream—but which dreams get realized and which deferred? A Raisin in the Sun paints the African-American experience in brilliant and powerful strokes, as vibrant and vital today as it was in 1959.

Seating is limited! Reserve your seats today!

By taking your seat in Klein Theatre, you will help us to establish the Fund for Theatrical Excellence, which will provide extraordinary artistic opportunities for Mary Washington students in the years to come. Your generous gift will allow us to:

- invite guest artists to work with students
- engage students in unique theatrical events
- explore emerging materials and technologies in design
- ensure that UMW offers audiences significant theatrical experiences in the years ahead.

The Fund for Theatrical Excellence will expand our vision of what is possible for UMW students as they work side-by-side with talented faculty to explore theatre both in and out of our studios, shops, classrooms, and theatres.

For just $500, you can name a seat in the beautiful Klein Theatre.

Most importantly, you will be personally responsible for creating amazing opportunities for our students as they discover themselves, the theatre, and the world beyond our campus.

You can name . . .

- a pair of seats for $1,000
- a row of seats in the center section for $4,500
- the left or right sections for $20,000
- the center section for $76,500

If you name a whole section in the house, you will receive two of the original Klein Theatre seats for your very own home!

Won’t you take your seat in Klein Theatre?

Pick up a “Take Your Seat” brochure in the lobby after the show!
