

AIMS FOR ENGLISH 202 "WRITING SEMINAR"

1. To enable students to hone their writing skills while focusing on writing in a particular context interesting to them.
2. To raise students' awareness of rhetorical situation and rhetorical choices.
3. To increase students' awareness of the writing process, including pre-writing, revision, and reflection.
4. To encourage students to practice the reading and comprehension of substantial, serious prose.

SPECIFIC TASKS FOR ENGLISH 202 "WRITING SEMINAR"

1. To complete a series of formal and informal writing assignments, including expository, argumentative, and research writing as appropriate to the seminar topic.
2. To engage in writing as a process, including practice in pre-writing and revision, and to reflect thoughtfully on that process.
3. To practice the conventions of writing within different discursive communities and in a variety of forms appropriate to the seminar topic.
4. To read and analyze serious, substantial prose relevant to the seminar topic.

draft submitted 12/15/10