QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

WHAT IS THE WALFORD MUSIC SCHOLARSHIP?

The Department of Music of the University of Mary Washington offers a number of performance scholarships to entering students who intend to major in music. To the guaranteed base scholarship award, additional sums are added where available.

DO I QUALIFY?

If you have made application to the University of Mary Washington and have been accepted and if you meet the musical requirements, you may apply.

If you have not yet applied to the college, do so now. Consideration of your scholarship applications can be concurrent with your application for admission to the university; however, granting the scholarship depends upon your acceptance for admission to the University of Mary Washington.

WHAT ARE THE MUSICAL REQUIREMENTS?

You must be enrolled in the music major curriculum (see the university catalogue for specifics); you must maintain performance skills (private study); and you must carry out a performance assignment (orchestra, chorus, jazz ensemble, accompanying, etc.). Of course, the initial requirement is to display performance skills worthy of a scholarship award.

IS THE SCHOLARSHIP CONTINUING?

The scholarship is continuing provided you continue to honor the music requirements and you meet certain academic standards. The academic standards for continuance are as follows: a grade point average of 2.0 to enter the sophomore year, 2.2 to enter the junior year, and 2.5 to enter the senior year, based upon a grading scale of 4.0.

HOW DO I APPLY?

You may apply for this scholarship by completing the application form which is part of this prospectus and returning it and a cassette tape recording of your performance to the Department of Music, Walford Music Scholarship, University of Mary Washington, Fredericksburg, Virginia 22401-5300.

Notification of scholarship awards is continuing. An on-site audition is preferable but a video cassette tape is acceptable in some instances. Please submit a video cassette tape with application materials or call the music department to schedule your on-site audition.
