

JOIN US VIRTUALLY THIS SPRING FOR HERITAGE'S

Local University Conservatives (LUC) Network

Want to start off strong in D.C.?

Want to make meaningful contacts and position yourself for long-term success? The Heritage Foundation, D.C.'s premier conservative think tank, wants to prepare you to be part of the next generation of conservative leaders. LUC's weekly training program for freshmen and sophomores attending D.C.-area universities establishes a foundation of conservative thought and community among its participants.

Through the LUC Network, you will:

- Learn the fundamentals of political philosophy from leading conservative intellectuals
- Learn about timely public policy issues from leading experts
- Hear practical insights from experienced D.C. professionals on how to thrive and lead in a public policy office
- Connect with fellow conservative undergraduates
- Cultivate essential career skills

To apply for the LUC Network, please submit your application by Tuesday, March 2:

<https://herit.ag/37aFvtP>.

Sessions will run from 6:00 - 7:00 PM EST

Monday, March 8th

Monday, March 15th

Monday, March 22nd

Monday, March 29th

Monday, April 5th

Monday, April 12th

Monday, April 19th

Perfect attendance not required.
We know you're busy!

Any Questions? Email Ross Hougham at ross.hougham@heritage.org

Hosted by The Heritage Foundation for local university freshmen and sophomores.