

Glenn Youngkin for Governor is currently seeking interns interested in politics and wanting to learn more about the political process.

This internship will allow students the opportunity to experience the day-to-day operations of a political campaign and provide them with opportunities to learn about what it takes for a candidate to successfully run for office. Students will work directly with experienced staff in the field and use the latest data to help get Glenn Youngkin elected the next Governor of Virginia.

Interns will get an up-close and in-depth look at:

- Political campaigns and organizing
- Voting: the processes of how to vote and persuading others to vote
- Campaign platforms, policies, and initiatives
- The different levels and types of political office
- Aspects of candidates running for political office

Interns will learn and develop the following skills:

- Data use and management
- Team leadership and management in a work environment
- Becoming a community leader
- Networking: building a network outside their comfort zone
- Event organization

The internship is running from now through November 2nd, 2021. Hours are very flexible and can accommodate busy schedules.
