

Approved Faculty Research Grant Proposals – Academic Year 2009-2010

Funding in 2010-11

Mindy Erchull, Department of Psychology, “The Enjoyment of Sexualization by Lesbians and Feminists”

Julius Esunge, Department of Mathematics, “Anticipating Stochastic Differential Equations.”

Jessie Fillerup, Department of Music, “Magic, Childhood, and the Grotesque in the Music of Maurice Rave.”

Theresa Grana, Department of Biological Sciences, “Comparative Analysis of Key Developmental Events in Two Species of Nematode.”

James M. Harding, Department of English, Linguistics, and Communication, “Two Chapters in the Theatre of Spies”

Nora Hui-Jung Kim, Department of Sociology and Anthropology, “Mapping Multiculturalism Discourses: Content Analysis of South Korean Multiculturalism Discourses”

Janusz Konieczny, Department of Mathematics, “Symmetries Associated with Free  $G$ -Sets”

Leonard R. Koos, Department of Modern Foreign Languages, “Communard Narratives of New Caledonia.”

Jangwoon (Leo) Lee, Department of Mathematics, “Piecewise Polynomial Approximations of Stochastic Elliptic Partial Differential Equations under the Robin Boundary Condition.”

Eric G. Lorentzen, Department of English, Linguistics, and Communication, “Charlotte Bronte and Dangerous Pedagogy”

Kristin L. Marsh, Department of Sociology and Anthropology, “Making Sense of Success: How Women Sociologists Experience their Achievements”

Keith E. Mellinger, Department of Mathematics, “Determining Sets Arising from Configurations of Conics”

Marisa Martínez-Mira, Department of Modern Foreign Languages, “The Language/ethnic Identity Relationship between ‘Hispanic-Americans’ and ‘Spanish-Americans’ in New Mexico: Another Tale of Two Cities.”

Sheshalatha Reddy, Department of English, Linguistics, and Communication, “Mapping Indian-English Poetry from 1800 to 1920: A Historical/Geographical Reader.”